

Introduction

Sango has been a leading supplier for Toyota Motors since 1937. You will find something very special about Sango. You will see a world of innovation at work. A world that begins with the drive and determination of their workers to build the world's most technologically advanced, highest quality, original equipment automotive assemblies. Sango's tools are creativity, ingenuity, and a continual dedication to perfection of the manufacturing process. Combined with these tools are state-of-the-art technology, materials, and skilled members. At Sango, their commitment to manufacturing only the highest quality products lies in the hands of their people - people who have made our world and the world of our customers grow.

Main Products

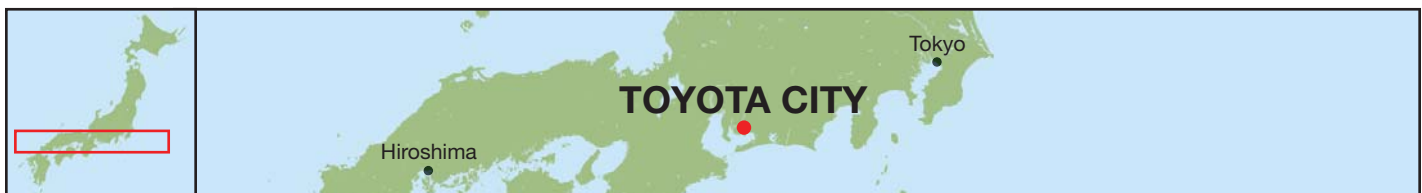

- Exhaust System Assemblies
- Instrument Panel Reinforcement / Subassemblies
- Body Panel Samplings
- Side Door Impact Beams

Basic Philosophy of Management

- Sango contributes to the progress of society as a trusted enterprise that bases its corporate activities upon fairness and sincerity.
- Sango richly contributes to creation of a living environmental by offering environmentally conscious products.
- Sango is determined to position itself as a world-class auto supplier by conducting never-ending technological research.
- Sango promise future growth both for itself and customers by devoting its entire attention to only the best manufacturing principles and introducing flexible and efficient management strategies.
- Sango promotes a corporate culture in which creativity of each individual and collaborative team effort is highly valued and workers are constantly challenged to develop new solutions.

Location

Toyota City, Aichi Prefecture, Japan

Discussion Topic

- "Quality Control" "Supplier & Kanban Management"